TAKING TIME OUT TO BE QUIET

There are two spaces left for a Quiet Garden Day this Wed 24th Sept at the home of Gill Morgan, 56 High St.. Sophie Witham, an artist turned florist will lead us in a day centred on flowers. She asks us to bring a favourite vase to work with and as she will be providing flowers fresh from the market there will be a charge of £20 payable to Sophie on the day.

October's Quiet Garden Day will be a leaderless one and, as always for such days, there will be books and resources to help you focus, if necessary. There are two options: Monday 27 October 10 – 4 or Tuesday afternoon 28 October, starting with lunch. There is no charge but there will be an opportunity to make a donation to cover lunch costs and towards the work of the Quiet Garden Movement.

For more details or to book a place please contact Gill Morgan by text on 07740123322, telephone on 01928 733452 or by email at gillandgareth@gmail.com. Booking is essential as numbers are limited.
