Trafficking Service to pray for victims of this modern-day slavery – at St Luke's, next Sunday (19th) at 4 pm. May we make an appeal please for more helpers to assist with the catering afterwards. So far there has been only a limited response.

Union Of Catholic Mothers Meeting – next Monday (20th) at 7.30 pm in the Parish Centre. Non-members welcome.

The UCM also invites you to an afternoon tea fund-raising event in St Luke's Centre on Monday 27th October (From 2-4 pm) in aid of Alzheimer's Research UK. A representative from this organisation will give information on this distressing condition. There will be a New Goods £1/donation table and a raffle. Tickets are available after Mass.

NODDFA VISIT 19th October. We have had an annual retreat at this beautiful centre for some years now. Those who have not been might like a 'taste and see' visit. A coach will leave St Luke's at 11 am. Lunch is provided. There will be a tour of the gardens and we will leave about 5 pm. If you would like to book a place, please contact Pauline Stitt on 07749013320 or nrspitt@gmail.com Food Bank. Many thanks for all your contributions to the Frodsham Food bank. There is a particular need for tinned vegetables and fruit and coffee, but not for long-life milk at the moment.

Children's Society Boxes are due to be emptied. For safety, could you please leave them in the sacristy rather than the porch. Any concerns, or if you would rather me pick them up from you, please contact Glenys Fitzmaurice on 01928 732060.

Annual Mass Count takes place today, as on all October Sundays.

Bishop Brian Noble will give a talk on the Joy of the Gospel at Our Lady's, Runcorn on Wednesday 22nd October at 7 p.m.

CAFOD Family Fast Day. Would you please return any outstanding envelopes or loose offerings this weekend? Thank you.

And finally... A retired man was walking home from the pub at 1 am, when he was stopped by the police. "Where were you between 5 and 11?" they asked. "Primary School" he answered.
