WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR THE SICK is on Tuesday this week, when we also celebrate the Feast of Our Lady of Lourdes. Pope Francis' message for this day is "Hope does not disappoint but strengthens us in time of trial". Please join us at Mass that day, at the usual evening time of 6:15pm, to pray for those close to us and around the world who are struggling with illness at this time.

ENROLMENT MASS: The children preparing to make their First Forgiveness and First Holy Communion this year will take place at the 6:00pm Mass this Saturday evening, 8th February. Please keep them, their families and the catechists who are preparing them in your prayers at this special time.

NEWS FROM ST LUKE'S CATHOLIC PRIMARY SCHOOL: Year 6 enjoyed celebrating Father James's 70th birthday with him this week. They attended his special birthday Mass and presented birthday cards to him from all of the classes. We have been learning about Children's Mental Health week this week and how to look after ourselves and our emotions. We are praying for the children who are being enrolled in the First Holy Communion programme this week.

Message of thanks from Fr James

I was really touched by the so well and lovingly organised 70th birthday celebrations on Wednesday. The Holy Mass of Thanksgiving, attended by over 100 people and Year 6 pupils from our Primary School, was wonderful. The readings, prayers, flowers, music and hymns were all beautifully presented - the special hymn "Our Lady of Knock" tribute was especially touching. The social event and magnificent buffet/shared table was most appreciated, alongside the wonderful music and songs, giving me fond memories of the songs of Ireland. The lively and happy atmosphere on a lovely sunny day was acknowledged by all those I spoke with. And how about the "surprise" act near the end? The Elvis Presley impersonation by our "newish" parishioner Steve, supported by his wife Anne. My special thanks to Victoria and Chris & Steve for co-ordinating the very special and most enjoyable 70th celebration. I'm still opening and enjoying your many lovely cards, greetings and your amazing generosity.

A million thanks to all!! Fr James

THANK YOU!

Please take extra care in the car park during icy winter weather, keeping to gritted/cleared pathways whenever possible
